OBITUARY.

Mrs. Robert O. Branch. Marian Hall, aged 22, wife of Robert O. Branch, died about 7 o'clock Tues-day morning of embolism of the brain at Fairview hospital. Death was sudat Fairview hospital. Death was sudden and brings grief to a large number of William tie friends. Mrs. Branch had just called for her infant daughter, born a week ago Tuesday, and the nurse had laid the child in bed beside its mother when Mrs. Branch started to say something but before she could conclude was dead. Dr. Mason was hurriedly called and he pronounced Mrs. Branch dead. Dr. T. R. Parker, who had been attending Mrs. Branch, was summoned. The cause of death is an unusual one.

ls an unusual one. Mrs. Branch was born in Williman-tic, March 13, 1889, daughter of the tic. March 13, 1889, daughter of the late Henry and Anna (Dodge) Hall. She received her early education in the public schools of town, attending the Natchaug school and then the Windham High school, from which she graduated. She then went to Wilbraham. Mass., where she attended the Wesleyan Academy. While at school she made a specialty of music and after graduating started to teach piano playing in this city. She was then playing in this city. She was then appointed to the position of organist at the First Congregational church which position she held with much credit. She possessed an estimable disposition and was beloved by all who know her.

disposition and was beloved by an who knew her.
On October 6, 1909, she was married to Robert O. Branch of this city. Besides the husband and daughter there survive a mother, Mrs. Carrie (Dodge) Hall of 103 Prospect street. There are also left an uncle, Milton H. and an aunt, Miss Annie Hall, both of this city.

Anty Drudge to the Rescue of Daughter's Pale Blue Gingham.

Mrs. Careful—"I have made my daughter such a pretty pale blue gingham dress, and now I am worried for fear it will fade in the wash."

Anty Drudge-"It won't fade if you don't rub it hard, nor put it in boiling water. Just washit carefully in Fels-Naptha suds, made in cool or luke-warm water, and it will come out as bright as new. But be sure not to use hot water with Fels-Naptha!"

The Fels-Naptha way of washing gives the clothes a fair chance.

The old-fashioned way is destructive because it first softens the fibre by boiling, and then subjects it to the telling rub of the washboard.

With Fels-Naptha soap there is no boiling nor is there the hard back-breaking drudgery of the washboard.

Just rub Fels-Naptha soap on the clothes, roll and place them in cool or lukewarm water. Half an hour will be long enough for the soap to do its work. Then a light rub, thorough rinse, blued and the clothes are white, pure, and ready to hang out. And you'll find Fels-Naptha just as good for every other kind of household cleaning. Follow closely the easy directions on the red and green wrapper.
